Premiere Irish Dance School of Colorado Simply Amazing!

We are now taking bookings for St. Patrick's Day 2012!

Liven up your Saint Patrick's Day celebrations with Irish dancers from Celtic Steps School of Irish Dance. With dancers ranging in age from five through fifty five, including dancers who will be representing Colorado at the 2012 World Championships in Belfast, N. Ireland. Celtic Steps will show you the best of Irish dance!

From jigs, reels and slip jigs to hornpipes, set dances and ceili (pronounced kay-lee) meaning party or gathering) group dances, we guarantee to keep you entertained. Feel the urge to get up and dance yourself? Celtic Steps can lead your group in a simple ceili dance.

Our goal at Celtic Steps is to participate in and share Irish culture through the grace, energy and strength of Irish dance. We are now accepting performance requests for Saint Patrick's Day 2012.

Please call 719-648-4139 and leave a message to schedule a performance today! You can also send an email message to Celtic Steps at irishdancera@comcast.net
